Description

Systemic autoimmune diseases (SAD) continue to be a big challenge for clinicians, given their complexity, clinical variability and potential impact in the life of patients, many of them young women.

Over the last 4 years, the Autoimmune Diseases Units from Cruces and Bordeaux University Hospitals have established a collaborative clinical and research program, including joined Lupus-Cruces and Lupus-Bordeaux research projects and annual Basque Lupus Seminars at Baiona.

Last 23rd July 2018 we jointly organised with Euskampus and the University of the Basque Country the Summer Course Enfermedades Autoinmunes Sistémicas / Systemic Autoimmune Diseases, with 92 attendants from both sides of the border.

Taking into account the good performance of the activity, the high number of students and their qualifications of the course, we would like to organise the second edition. We aim to offer an eminently practical focus and to remark the importance of a collaborative multidisciplinary approach, concluding with the presentation of real-life clinical situations from our two Units with an interactive approach.

This activity is included in the cycle "Health, a commitment to people" that is developed in collaboration with the Department of Health of the Basque Government and Osakidetza, which offers reduced fees (75% discount on advance rate) and is especially aimed to the training and updating of professionals of the public health of the Autonomous Community of the Basque Country.

Objectives

To update the diagnostic process and clinical management of the different SADs.

To remark the importance of multidisciplinary team work.

To discuss with the attendants real-life clinical cases with an eminently practical approach.

I got my grade in Medicine in 2001 (Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona). I performed my specialization in Ophthalmology in Hospital universitario Vall d'Hebron de Barcelona from 2002 to 2006; afterwards, in this hospital I worked as a consultant during 3 years as a medical and surgical retina and uveitis specialist. I got my doctorate in 2007 (Universidad Autónoma de Barcelona). In 2009 I moved to Bilbao (Basque country) due to personal reasons where I started to work as a consultant in Hospital Universitario Cruces (Universidad del Pais Vasco) and since 2011 also in Instituto Oftalmológico Bilbao as a medical and surgical retina and uveitis specialist. Since 2010 I am the principal investigator of the Ophthalmology Research Group (BioCruces Health Research Institute). Since 2017 I am associate professor of Ophthalmology at the Universidad del Pais Vasco. My main research line is Uveitis and diabetic retinopathy, specifically pathogenesis of macular edema. I have 48 papers in Pubmed.
