Description

In 2D materials, essentially everything takes place on the surface and, consequently, SPM techniques have produced some of the most exciting works in these unique materials. We believe a focused 2DSPM conference will represent a very stimulating environment facilitating the easy flow of knowledge and ideas among participants. After the success of the first edition, 2DSPM has been consolidated in a biennial basis conference. In this 2022 edition, we will have 26 invited speakers and additional participants who will contribute with short talks and posters.

ORGANIZING COMMITTEE:

Chairs:

Miguel Moreno Ugeda (DIPC, CFM-MPC, Spain)

Iván Brihuega (IFIMAC / UAM, Spain)

Scientific Committee:

Miquel Salmerón (LBNL, US)

Cristina Gómez-Navarro (UAM/IMDEA)

Mike Crommie (UCB / LBNL, US)

Sara Barja (UPV-EHU)

Technical Committee:

Eva Cortés-del Río (UAM, Spain)

Diego Expósito (UAM, Spain)

Wen Wan (DIPC, Spain)

Rishav Harsh (DIPC, Spain)

Objectives

The aim of the conference is to bring together a leading group of 40-50 researchers, in addition to students, postdocs and other participants to share the latest contributions made by SPM in the field of 2D materials.
