Others collaborations

The Summer Courses Foundation in his mission to bring culture to the greatest number of people is in continual contact with organizations and institutions, public and private, to achieve agreements which favour the participation of anyone interested in expanding their personal and professional formation. The agreements will be displayed as they are specified and can be consulted in the fact sheet of each activity.